

Overstaying abroad to cost officers job

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

Officers belonging to IAS, IPS and India Forest Services (IFS) may have to lose their job if they overstay on foreign assignments for more than a month without permission. As per the new rules being finalised by the Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT), the move is being made as it has been noticed that some bureaucrats were not reporting back to India after completion of their foreign postings.

Presently, there are ten IAS officers who are at present on unauthorised leave and necessary action is being taken against them and few of them were also proceeding on unauthorised leave soon after completing their tenure abroad.

According to new DoPT directives, if an IAS, IPS and IFS remains unauthorisedly absent after the sanctioned period of leave, study leave or tenure of foreign assignment, there would be a one month waiting period. Thereafter the State Government concerned under whose cadre the officer hails from, would issue a show-cause notice giving an ultimatum to the officer to explain his overstay or delay, if any, in joining back.

As per existing rules, no officer of the three all India services shall be granted leave of any kind for a continuous period exceeding five years.

Also, an officer shall be deemed to have resigned from service if he is absent without authorisation for a period exceeding one year from the date of expiry of sanctioned leave or continues on foreign assignment beyond the period

Recently senior IAS officer Shishir Priyadarshi has deemed to have resigned from the service for being on unauthorised leave for over nine years. In April this year, another IAS officer Prashant was deemed to have resigned from service. 100% literacy in villages by March '16: Irani

Literacy alone can bring development, empowerment & sustainability: President

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

With President Pranab Mukherjee regretting the fact that India still lagged behind some of its neighbours in achieving 100 per cent literacy, the Centre on Tuesday set a target of achieving cent per cent literacy in at least villages adopted under the Saansad Adarsh Gram Yojana (SAGY) by March 2016.

"We have written to the MPs requesting them the villages they have identified under the Saansad Adarsh Gram Yojana, we will make such villages 100 per cent literate by March 2016," HRD Minister

President Pranab Mukherjee stressed on the need for greater 'societal involvement' in achieving higher literacy target and reminded of the UNESCO slogan of 'each one teach one', saying by adopting such strategy, 'it will be possible for us to fulfil the dream of Sakshar Bharat, Swachh Bharat and the Bharat of our dream'

Smriti Irani said at the International Literacy Day function. Noting that there are 410 districts where villages have identified under the SAGY, she expressed confidence of accomplishing the target.

Earlier, Mukherjee noted that literacy alone can bring development, empowerment and sustainability and achieve desired goals set under the Saakshar Bharat and Swachh Bharat Abhiyan programmes. He also stressed on the need for greater 'societal involvement' in achieving higher literacy target and reminded of the UNESCO slogan of "each one teach one", saying by adopting such strategy, "it will be possible for us to fulfill the dream of Sakshar Bharat, Swachh Bharat and the Bharat of our dream".

"Without literacy, India cannot claim its pride of place among the comity of nations.

From 18 per cent in 1951 to 72.5 per cent in 2011, we are still behind. Many of our sister developing countries, including those in South Asia have almost 100 per cent literacy rate. While we have fixed a target of 80 per cent literacy in country by end of 12th Five Year plan, we have to ensure that the gender gap in literacy should not be more than 10 per cent," said the President in his ILLD address at Vigyan Bhawan, Tamil Nadu was felicitated as the "best performing State" by the President.
